The smarter E Podcast Sponsorship

2024

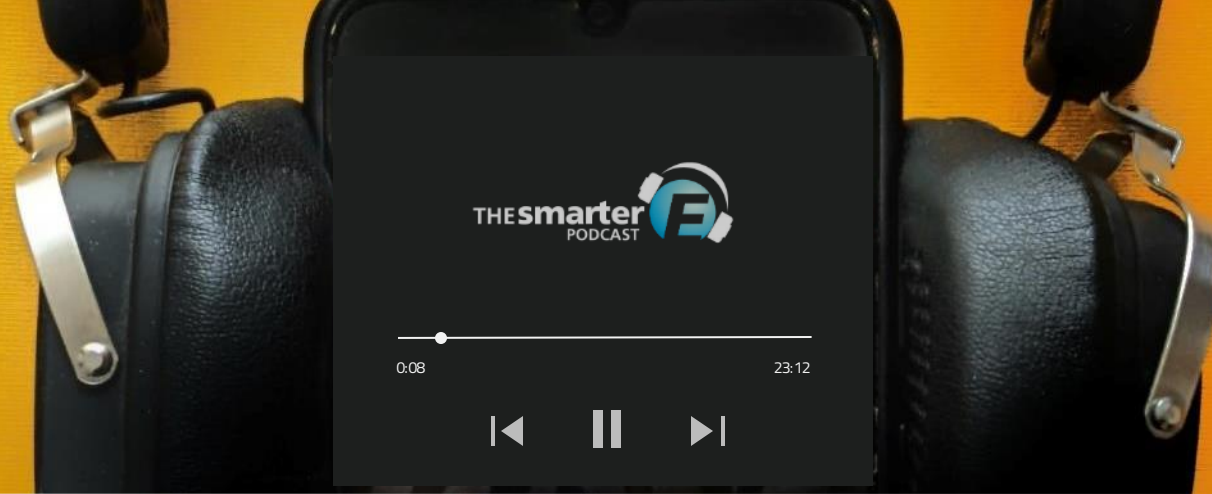

Why? Because we have the competence.

The smarter E Europe is the innovation hub for events and topics driving the new energy world. True to the motto "Creating a new energy world", it unites the four exhibitions and conferences Intersolar, ees, Power2Drive and EM-Power Europe, making it Europe's largest platform for the energy industry today. We bring together players from all over the world, from start-ups to international market leaders – and not only at the exhibition center.

Because we have the content. The networks. The community. And thus the optimal basis for placing the current topics of the renewable, decentralized and digital energy industry digitally and outside the classic work environment with The smarter E Podcast.

The new energy world on-ear. Anytime and anywhere. Even after work. And on weekends.

The new energy world on-ear

The podcast for and with the creators of the new energy world. It offers intensive interviews and discussions with personalities from the energy industry. Our podcast hosts Tobias Bücklein and Zacks Brustik look behind the scenes of promising innovations and reveal inspiring visionaries, success stories and challenges. The smarter E Podcast gives solar, energy storage, e-mobility, energy management and sector coupling a “listening stage” and addresses current trends, such as:

- Will hydrogen save the energy transition?
- Vehicle2Grid as a gamechanger for the new energy world
- 100% renewable energies for Germany by 2030?
- Agrivoltaics – synergistic of production of food and energy
- What impact will sustainable batteries have on the market?
- What role does blockchain play in the energy world?

6 REASONS

Why podcast sponsorship works

01 High popularity

One third of Germans listen to podcasts at least once a week, preferably for 20-30 minutes per episode

02 High attention

95% focus entirely on the podcast or just do simple things on the side

03 High knowledge desire

61% listen to podcasts for education and information, followed by news and politics

04 High ad acceptance

75% welcome advertising on free podcasts, 67% do not mind podcast ads (pre-rolls)

05 High ad recall

64% actively perceive podcast advertising, with an upward trend; ads with added value and CTA are preferred

06 High ad authenticity

82% find advertisements spoken by the host most appealing and usually listen to them in their entirety
